JOY OF THE GOSPEL The Bishops Lay Congress on Saturday 8 November 2014, 9.30am-3.45pm at Saint Martin's House

[please ignore wrong information in the Quarterly]

Living in times when there are many challenges to faith and much to be preoccupied with in maintaining the church, we might easily become downcast and cheerless in living out our faith. Yet those who seek to follow Jesus are encouraged by Him to know and share his joy – so what does this joy look like and what are the disciplines, the practices and the habits of heart and mind that can help us to share in Jesus' joyfulness? How is it we are to truly be his joyful disciples, come what may? Keynote speaker is Dr Jane Williams, broadcaster, author and lecturer in theology. Other speakers include Sister Frances Dominica, founder of the world's first children's hospice, the Very Rev David Monteith, Dean of Leicester Cathedral and Rt Revd Tim Stevens, Bishop of Leicester.

Admission free, tickets must be obtained in advance – see leaflet for details

GRAND AUCTION! Please would all members of the congregation take a form on which they can offer something for the Auction on 21 November.

If you are able to ask friends or contacts if they would like to offer something, then please take additional forms to pass on to them.

The proceeds will go the Building Appeal, to secure our wonderful building for future generations. The Auction promises to be entertaining and exciting, so please note the date in your diaries.

PANTOMIME we are organising a trip on 27 December to see the matinee of Puss in Boots at the Little Theatre which features our own Mike Bull! Tickets are £14, though there will be a discount if enough people sign up for a group booking. If you are interested please contact the Church Office by 2 October.
