The Readings for the Fifth Sunday of Easter

Acts 8. 26 – 40

Read by William Woolley

Then an angel of the Lord said to Philip, 'Get up and go towards the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.' (This is a wilderness road.) So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. Then the Spirit said to Philip, 'Go over to this chariot and join it.' So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, 'Do you understand what you are reading?' He replied, 'How can I, unless someone guides me?' And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him. Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this:

'Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter,
and like a lamb silent before its shearer,
so he does not open his mouth.

In his humiliation justice was denied him.

Who can describe his generation?

For his life is taken away from the earth.'

The eunuch asked Philip, 'About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?' Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus. As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, 'Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?' He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

The Gospel

John 15. 1 – 8

'I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine-grower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.

Post Communion Prayer

Eternal God,
whose Son Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life:
grant us to walk in his way,
to rejoice in his truth,
and to share his risen life;
who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

The Vicar Writes ...

We hear repeatedly about the importance of "abiding" in this week's Gospel. It's not a word we use much in daily life, except perhaps in the negative - "I can't abide that." But the importance of simply remaining, staying rooted, persisting is a value that lockdown has emphasized.

We have seen the public-health importance of abiding at home, and the difficulty of abiding in community under various restrictions.

Abiding does not sound like the most dynamic and exciting aspect of Christian life, but we must remain rooted in Christ and in our community unless we are to wither.

SARAH CLARK WRITES 'Covid 19 has grown up round my ears. I can't see it, but I feel it – a wilderness all around.'

I wrote this around Christmas; I wondered if Rowan Williams had written anything pertinent. He has. 'Candles in the Dark – faith, hope and love in a time of pandemic.' With his congregation in the small church of St Clement in Cambridge, this is a series of little reflections written during 2020. They include such titles as 'Online Communion,' 'Behind the Mask', 'Herd Mentality', 'Staying Put'.

In 'Staying Put', Williams writes, 'We betray love ultimately not by feelings of impatience or even hostility, but by the desire to be somewhere else... by saying to God, in effect, "Can we have a nicer and more manageable world, please, with people that it's easier to love?"'

In 'Behind the Mask', he writes, 'We talk a lot about "the face we present to the world", about "saving face", or "losing face", about "putting a brave face on things" – and so much of this kind of language suggests that our "face" is something we can work on and polish until it shows only what we want to show.'

Each reflection is short and to the point, using everyday images, such as a biker jumping off his bike to photograph exquisite blossom on his mobile phone, or the extraordinary symmetry of a flock of flying geese.

YOUR GIVING TO ST JAMES Did you know that in a normal year over 35% of the church's income is made up of regular Direct Debits and Standing Orders from members of the congregation?

If you already give by Direct Debit or Standing Order, thank you! Of course, if you are able to increase the amount you give, that would be very welcome. We do not hold Gift Aid declarations for some people and if this applies to you, we will be in touch to ask if you can fill one in for us.

If you are not already a regular giver, please consider starting a Direct Debit through the Church of England's Parish Giving Scheme. They offer a very friendly service and will help you set everything up over the phone. They make sure that Gift Aid tax relief is claimed (this adds 25p to every £1 that you give), and they pass every penny of your donation straight through to St James the Greater.

You can contact the Parish Giving Scheme on 0333 002 1271 (local call rates apply).
