O God,

OPENING HYMN 766

READING Isaiah 6. 1-8

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven

read by Ian Jones

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. <sup>2</sup>Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. <sup>3</sup>And one called to another and said:

‘Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts;
the whole earth is full of his glory.’

<sup>4</sup>The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. <sup>5</sup>And I said: ‘Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!’

<sup>6</sup> Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. <sup>7</sup>The seraph touched my mouth with it and said:

‘Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.’ <sup>8</sup>Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, ‘Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?’ And I said, ‘Here am I; send me!’

GRADUAL HYMN 603*Bright the vision that delighted

GOSPEL Luke 5. 1-11

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, <sup>2</sup>he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. <sup>3</sup>He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. <sup>4</sup>When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, 'Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.' <sup>5</sup>Simon answered, 'Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.' <sup>6</sup>When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. <sup>7</sup>So they signalled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. <sup>8</sup>But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, 'Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!' <sup>9</sup>For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; <sup>10</sup>and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.' <sup>11</sup>When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

The Vicar Writes ...

This year before Lent we have a few weeks of “Ordinary Time”. We move from the infant Jesus at the Temple to the adult Jesus at the lakeside, calling the first disciples. The calling of the disciples is foundational to Jesus’ ministry, and for us should be part of the “ordinary” business of being Christian. The joy, good news, and dawning light we have celebrated through Christmas and Epiphany is meant for sharing.

read by David Kibert

Listen therefore, O kings, and understand;
learn, O judges of the ends of the earth.

<sup>2</sup> Give ear, you that rule over multitudes,
and boast of many nations.

<sup>3</sup> For your dominion was given you from the Lord,
and your sovereignty from the Most High;
he will search out your works and inquire into your plans.

<sup>4</sup> Because as servants of his kingdom you did not rule rightly,
or keep the law,

or walk according to the purpose of God, <sup>5</sup> he will come upon you terribly and swiftly, because severe judgement falls on those in high places.

<sup>6</sup> For the lowliest may be pardoned in mercy,
but the mighty will be mightily tested.

<sup>7</sup> For the Lord of all will not stand in awe of anyone,
or show deference to greatness;
because he himself made both small and great,
and he takes thought for all alike.

<sup>8</sup> But a strict inquiry is in store for the mighty.

<sup>9</sup> To you then, O monarchs, my words are directed,
so that you may learn wisdom and not transgress.

<sup>10</sup> For they will be made holy who observe holy things in holiness, and those who have been taught them will find a defence.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore set your desire on my words;
long for them, and you will be instructed.

<sup>12</sup> Wisdom is radiant and unfading,
and she is easily discerned by those who love her,
and is found by those who seek her.

<sup>13</sup> She hastens to make herself known to those who desire her.

<sup>14</sup> One who rises early to seek her will have no difficulty, for she will be found sitting at the gate.

<sup>15</sup> To fix one's thought on her is perfect understanding,
and one who is vigilant on her account will soon be free from care,

<sup>16</sup> because she goes about seeking those worthy of her,
and she graciously appears to them in their paths,
and meets them in every thought.

<sup>17</sup> The beginning of wisdom is the most sincere desire for instruction,
and concern for instruction is love of her,

<sup>18</sup> and love of her is the keeping of her laws,
and giving heed to her laws is assurance of immortality,

<sup>19</sup> and immortality brings one near to God;

<sup>21</sup> Therefore if you delight in thrones and sceptres, O monarchs over the peoples, honour wisdom, so that you may reign for ever.

SECOND LESSON Colossians 3. 1-22 read by Jennifer Clegg

So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. <sup>2</sup>Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, <sup>3</sup>for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. <sup>4</sup>When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

<sup>5</sup> Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). <sup>6</sup>On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. <sup>7</sup>These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. <sup>8</sup>But now you must get rid of all such things—anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth. <sup>9</sup>Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices <sup>10</sup>and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. <sup>11</sup>In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

<sup>12</sup>As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. <sup>13</sup>Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. <sup>14</sup>Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. <sup>15</sup>And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful. <sup>16</sup>Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God. <sup>17</sup>And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

<sup>18</sup>Wives, be subject to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. <sup>19</sup>Husbands, love your wives and never treat them harshly.

<sup>20</sup>Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is your acceptable duty in the Lord. <sup>21</sup>Fathers, do not provoke your children, or they may lose heart. <sup>22</sup>Slaves, obey your earthly masters in everything, not only while being watched and in order to please them, but wholeheartedly, fearing the Lord.
